Hauser Colloquium on Globalization and Its Discontents:
Global Administrative Law, Fall Semester 2006
Professor Benedict Kingsbury and Richard Stewart
NYU Law School, VH-202, Wednesdays 2pm-4pm

Schedule of Sessions

August 30.
Teaching Session: Introductory Class (course instructors)

Readings:
Read as background: Kingsbury, Krisch & Stewart The Emergence of Global Administrative Law (go to www.iilj.org, under NEWS click on Three Journal Symposia of Papers on Global Administrative Law; the paper may be found in the Symposium on the Emergence of Global Administrative law

Skim: Sabino Cassese et al, Case and Materials on Global Administrative Law (found at go to www.iilj.org, under NEWS)

September 6: No class (legislative Monday)  [The IILJ will convene a round table on the UN Oil-For-Food Inquiry, with Inquiry Chair Paul Volcker, Judge Richard Goldstone and others, on Wed Sept 6, 6pm-9pm, at the Law School. GAL issues are central to this. See The Docket or the IILJ Website for details.]

September 13.
Speaker: Sabino Cassese, Italian Constitutional Court and University of Rome “La Sapienza”
Topic: A Global Due Process of Law?

September 20.
Speaker: Richard Stewart, NYU Law School

September 27.
Teaching Session
Topics and Research Methods in Global Administrative Law (course instructors)

October 4.
Speaker: Horatia Muir-Watt, University of Paris I
Topic: Conflict of Laws and Global Regulatory Governance

October 11.
Speaker: Leslie Green, Osgoode Hall Law School and NYU Global Faculty
Topic: Globalization, Civil Disobedience, and the Rule of Law
October 18. This session will run 2pm-4pm then continue until approx 5pm.
Topic: Governance by Contract: Privatization and Public Interests in Global Administrative Law

October 25.
Teaching Session: Current Problems of Global Administrative Law (course instructors)

November 1.
Speaker: John Ferejohn, Stanford and NYU Law School
Topic: Accountability outside the State

November 8.
Speakers: Robert Keohane and Stephen Macedo, both Princeton University and in residence at NYU Law School
Topic: Can Participation in Non-Democratic International Institutions Enhance National Democracy?

November 15.
Speaker: Benedict Kingsbury, NYU Law School
Topic: A New Jus Gentium?

FRIDAY November 17 (Special Workshop Session, 1pm-3:30pm).
Topic: Accountability in Global Governance
Participants include (with several others): Jerry Mashaw, Yale Law School; Robert Kagan, University of California at Berkeley; Robert Keohane, Princeton; John Ferejohn, Stanford and NYU Law School; Jeremy Waldron, NYU Law School

November 22: No class

November 29
Student paper presentations

December 6
Student paper presentations and wrap up.