1. Purchase required books at the bookstore.

2. Visit and become familiar with the class web page that can be accessed through your NYU Home account.

3. Read Bradford, Untangling the Income Tax, Chapters 2, 8, and 9 and be prepared to discuss these chapters. We will spend about 2 weeks on these chapters (and other materials), but you should read all of this material for the first class.

4. Consider the Musgrave Excerpt located in the course documents section of the class website.
