PATENT LAW I

PRINCIPLES OF PATENT LAW (3d Ed., 2004)
Chisum, Nard, Schwartz, Newman & Kieff

Outline - Assignments

2. Disclosure Requirements: Enablement – pp. 155-188.

3. Disclosure Requirements: Best Mode; Written Description; Definiteness – pp. 188-230; 242-245.

4. Loss of Right: Timely Application; Public Use; Experimental Use – pp. 324-338; 342-363.

5. Loss of Right: On Sale Bar; Third-Party Activity – pp. 363-375; 379-406.

6. Novelty: Proving Date of Invention; Identity of Invention and Anticipatory Enablement; Known or Used; Described in a Printed Publication – pp. 406-428; 436-444.

7. Novelty: Patented; Secret Prior Art - Sections 102(e) and (g); Derivation – Section 102(f) - p. 444-463; 474-480.

8. Novelty: Priority - Section 102(g) – pp. 480-521.

9. Nonobviousness: The Graham Framework – pp. 532-571.

10. Nonobviousness: The Scope of the Prior Art; The Content of the Prior Art – pp. 572-620.

11. Nonobviousness: Person Having Ordinary Skill in the Art; Secondary Considerations – pp. 620-636; Utility – pp. 735-758.

12. Statutory Subject Matter: Biotechnology-Related Inventions; Computer-Related Inventions and Business Methods – pp. 772-791; 807-843.

13. Infringement: Claim Interpretation – pp. 859-905.