Conflict of Laws meets on Monday and Wednesday 8:50-10:40. The classroom is FH 212.

The text for the Conflict of Laws course is Lowenfeld, Conflict of Laws: Federal, State and International Perspectives (Revised 2d ed. 2002). There will be additional Distributions for the course during the semester. Distributions will be posted on the course website NYU Classes under the heading “Course Materials”. The Tentative Syllabus will also be posted there, along with introductory materials of excerpts from the U.S. Constitution and the U.S. Judicial Code.

For the first class on Wednesday, August 28th, please read Alabama RR. v. Carroll (Cb. p.1), and Horn v. North British Railway (Cb., p. 6), and Milliken v. Pratt, (Cb., p. 14).

Please note that there will be no class on Monday Sept. 30 and Wednesday Oct. 2. The Sept. 30 class will be made up on Friday, Sept. 13 from 2-3:50. (FH 212)
The Oct. 2 class will be made up on Friday, Oct. 25 from 2-3:50. (FH 210)